

Curriculum Vitae

Name	Thomas Kammerer
Date of birth	27.03.1964, Munich, Germany
Location	Munich, Germany
Profession	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Priest since 1990, archdiocese of Munich and Freising, Germany• Director of Pastoral Care Department, Hospital of the university of applied sciences (TUM) Munich, Germany, since 2011• teaching assignment in Spiritual Care in Palliative Care, faculty of medicine, university of applied sciences (TUM) Munich, Germany, since 2011• Sideline: Paramedic (since 1999)• Staff member of the Crisis Intervention in the Emergency Service of Munich (since 1998) and there also Training Manager (since 2007)• Teacher at the Academy of Crisis Intervention Munich• Teacher at the Institute of Theological Education, Freising• Cooperation with the Dept. of Clinical Psychology, University of Munich, Germany (LMU) (mentoring and initiation of surveys)• Pastor for victims of sexual abuse by clergy, archdiocese of Munich and Freising, Germany
Education and job history	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• 1999-2011 Hospital Chaplain University of Munich, Germany• 1999-2011 Deputy Director of the Clinical Pastoral Care Center, University of Munich (LMU),• 2000 Standard Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) Program, Augsburg, Germany• 1993-1999 Spiritual head of the catholic youth organisation "Katholische Junge Gemeinde" (kjg), archdiocese of Munich and Freising, Germany• 1990-1993 Vicar, parish collective Holzland, archdiocese of Munich and Freising, Germany• 1990 Ordination to priesthood• 1989-1990 Pastoral Preparation Program, archdiocese of Munich and Freising, Germany• 1989 Ordination to deacon• 1983-1989 Studies of theology at University of Munich, Germany (LMU) and at Pontificio Ateneo S. Anselmo, Rome, Italy• 1974-1983 high school, Puchheim, Germany• 1970-1974 elementary school, Eichenau, Germany
Graduate degree	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• 1993 Final ecclesiastic degree, archdiocese of Munich and Freising, Germany• 1989 Diploma degree in Theology, University of Munich, Germany (LMU)

Further Education	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 2001 Diagnosis of PTSD, Institute for Psychotraumatology, University of Cologne, Germany • 1998 Preclinical peritraumatic crisis intervention (Standard, Advanced), KIT-Academy, Munich, Germany • 2010 Moderation of interdisciplinary medical ethical case conferences. University of Augsburg, Germany • 2000- Basics in Process orientated psychology (Arnold Mindell) in self study and discourse • 2012-2013 Spirituality and health, Mainz, Germany
Focus in working, research and teaching	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Process of life assisting communication with patients in altered states of consciousness and coma • Spiritual Care and Palliative Care • Distress and mental outcome of intensive care patients and family members • Traumatic experiences and preventive acute crisis intervention • Ethical implications of decision making in medicine • Applied ethics of medicine • Spiritual resources and their import in recovery • The humane hospital and health system, change from biomedicine to holistic, complementary and integral approach • The role of christian and catholic Pastoral Care in a multicultural medical environment
Publications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • T. Kammerer (publisher), Traumland Intensivstation, BOD, 2006 • M. Maragos, S. Babilon, S. Delfs, T. Kammerer, W. Butollo, Symptoms of Posttraumatic Stress Disorder and depressive symptoms in families of deceased patients of Intensive Care Units – an empirical survey, Verhaltenstherapie & Verhaltensmedizin 2012, 33 (1), 50 - 67 • Spiritual Care, in: A. Michalsen (publisher), End-of-Life-Care in Intensive Care, Springer, to publish 2013
Internet-Sites	www.traumland-intensivstation.de (Focus ICU) www.klinkseelsorge-tum.de (pastoral care in Munich TUM Hospital)
